

CUPE Nova Scotia
2023 Betty Jean Sutherland
Sister of the Year Award

The CUPE Nova Scotia Betty Jean Sutherland Sister of the Year Award endeavors to recognize a union sister who has proven their dedication to the Labour Movement specifically in advancing Equality Rights for women. A sister who embodies the principles that Betty Jean lived by.

If you have a sister that you believe is a committed union member, who is an activist and leader in her union, community or beyond, who is dedicated to equity and labour activism and a member in good standing of a local affiliated to CUPE NS. We encourage Locals to nominate someone they feel deserving of the CUPE Nova Scotia Betty Jean Sutherland Sister of the Year Award.

This Award will be presented annually at the CUPE Nova Scotia Annual Convention. Completed Nomination Forms MUST be received by April 15, 2023 to be considered. No late nominations will be considered.

Nominations must be a member in good standing of a local affiliated to CUPE Nova Scotia.

Nominations must include the completed nomination form and a detailed profile of the nominee, describing her contribution to the labour movement and the advancement of women's rights. A sister who works to raise women's voices within the workplace and community.

To nominate a sister from your Local please complete the attached CUPE Nova Scotia Betty Jean Sutherland Sister of the Year Nomination Form and mail or fax:
