We don't want to risk anything we're fighting for! Given the political climate, and for that reason and many others, this semester the CUPE Weeklong School is poised to tackle:

NEW: STREAM 1 – USING OUR POWER AT ELECTION TIME (AND BEYOND): POLITICAL ENGAGEMENT TRAINING

Here we will discuss our deep concerns about our democracy and how we can resist passivity by shoring up our base. You will learn some basic economic concepts about how the economy works, and how to challenge everyday assumptions about economics to support demands for a government and an economy that is inclusive, works for workers, and leaves no one behind.

STREAM 2 - WORKING IN A HEALTHY AND SAFE ENVIRONMENT

Ensuring we work in a safe and healthy environment, with courses from the Health & Safety Series such as: Law & Orders, Violence Prevention, Workload and Overwork.

STREAM 3 - STRENGTHENING THE LABOUR MOVEMENT: INSIDE AND OUT

How we strengthen our internal solidarity, with courses from the Steward Learning Series, for instance: Ally Skills, Mobilizing and Duty of Fair Representation.
